HISTORY AND PURPOSE

The Western Massachusetts Paralegal Association (WMPA) is a voluntary, nonprofit association formed in 1988 to promote the professional development and continuing education of paralegals in the Western Massachusetts area. The goals of the WMPA are:

- To promote high professional and ethical standards in the education, training and employment of paralegals.
- To serve as a source of educational information for members, the legal community and the general public.
- To provide opportunities for the mutual association of paralegals and paralegal students to promote the general professional interests of paralegals.

DEFINITION OF PARALEGAL

As defined in WMPA's by-laws, a paralegal/legal assistant is a person, qualified through education, training and/or work experience to perform substantive legal work that requires knowledge of legal concepts and procedures and who works under the supervision of an attorney or is authorized by administrative, statutory or court authority to perform this work. This person may be retained or employed by a lawyer, law office, governmental agency, corporation, or other entity.

NATIONAL AFFILIATION

WMPA is a voting member of the National Federation of Paralegal Associations (NFPA), a national non-profit professional organization comprised of state and local paralegal associations. NFPA was founded in 1974 and currently represents thousands of paralegals. NFPA provides paralegal associations with information regarding issues affecting paralegals while presenting a unified voice for the profession on the national level. Every member of WMPA is a member of NFPA and receives NFPA's quarterly publication, The National Paralegal Reporter, in addition to receiving the benefits detailed at www.paralegals.org.

MEMBER SERVICES

- Programs - WMPA holds general membership meetings throughout the year for discussion and to present topics and speakers of professional interest. WMPA's annual meeting is held in April. WMPA also sponsors an annual dinner as well as holiday gatherings.
- Continuing Education - WMPA is a co-sponsor of all MCLE continuing education programs for paralegals. WMPA also sponsors its own educational programs for the benefit of its members.
- Discounts - In addition to discounts through NFPA, each WMPA member receives a discount on WMPA/MCLE co-sponsored seminars, as well as a 10% discount on the Massachusetts Paralegal Practice Manual published by MCLE.

- Exclusive Web Content - With your membership in WMPA, you gain 24-7 access to archived issues of Paradocs, our exclusive Membership Directory, and our Job Bank on our Web site at www.wmassparalegal.org.
- Publications - Each member of WMPA is also a member of NFPA and as such will receive NFPA's quarterly magazine, The National Paralegal Reporter which contains informative articles on different areas of the law, informs members of policy matters, case law updates, and general reports on developments across the country.
- Salary Survey - WMPA conducts periodic salary surveys to inform members of employment conditions, job responsibilities, salaries, and types of paralegal employers in Western Massachusetts.
- NFPA - Each WMPA member receives NFPA's quarterly magazine and has access to discounts on many products and services. Through NFPA, WMPA members also have access to continuing legal education and professional services. NFPA's Web site provides members with information about the paralegal profession and a wide variety of resources.
